

Application for Provost's and Alumni Fellowships
Cratis D. Williams Graduate School

Provost's Fellowships, $3000 (Application Deadline March 31)

Five to seven Provost's Fellowships are awarded each Fall to outstanding new or continuing graduate students. Applicants will include a 500 word essay on the importance of graduate education to their career goals.

Summer or fall applicants do not need to complete this form -- apply by checking "yes" to the scholarship consideration question on the admission application, and then uploading the essay as an attachment. Continuing students should use this paper application form and attach the essay and resume.

To be considered for the Provost's Fellowship, a student should have:

- Unconditional admission to a graduate degree program at Appalachian.
- Full-time status (minimum enrollment in 9 graduate credit hours per semester).
- New students: A GPA in all college degrees of at least 3.5; Returning students: A 3.7 GPA.
- Standardized entrance test scores at or above the 60th percentile.

The Provost's Fellowship is not automatically renewable, but a recipient may reapply and compete for a second award.

Alumni Fellowships, $1750 (Application Deadline March 31)

Between ten and fifteen Alumni Scholarships are awarded each year to excellent new or continuing graduate students. Applicants will include a 500 word essay on the importance of graduate education to their career goals.

Summer or fall applicants do not need to complete this form -- apply by checking "yes" to the scholarship consideration question on the admission application, and then uploading the essay as an attachment. Continuing students should use this paper application form and attach the essay and resume.

To be considered for the Alumni Fellowship, a student should have:

- Unconditional admission to a graduate degree program at Appalachian.
- Full-time status (minimum enrollment in 9 graduate credit hours per semester).
- New students: A GPA in all college degrees of at least 3.3; Returning students: A 3.5 GPA.
- Standardized entrance test scores at or above the 50th percentile.

The Alumni Fellowship is not automatically renewable, but a recipient may reapply and compete for a second award.
